This advanced-level performing choir for girls age 8-18 was founded in 1990 by Artistic Director Sara Burden-McClure. The group performs frequently for state events, parades, conventions and festivals, as well as its own concerts and tours. AGC has been featured on CNN, C-SPAN and BBC Radio, and many television newscasts. Fun June concert tours have included 5 European countries, venues all over the US, a private performance for President Bush at the White House, and singing Evensong at the Washington National Cathedral. Past local collaborative performances range from artists Bob Schneider and Joe McDermott to Austin Symphony Orchestra and the American Boychoir. The Choir enjoys a fine national reputation for excellence.
